TERRENCE BRAMLETT GIVEN FIFTY YEARS IN CHILDS MURDER

FORMER CCC WORKER GETS DOUBLE SENTENCE METED OUT TO WOMAN

CARTHAGE, Sept. 24.—(P)—A jury sentenced Terrence Bramlett to 50 years penal servitude today for the murder, April 23, of Marlie Childs in Center.

The 21-year-old former CCC worker received the sentence with a weak smile. Nearly all observers had expected a heavier penalty.

Defense attorneys indicated they would not appeal.

The jury was out overnight.

The state had demanded death for the youth, who admitted an illicit love affair with the slain woman's pretty 24-year-old wife, Reable Childs. Mrs. Childs was also convicted in the killing and sentenced to 25 years in the penitentiary.

From the witness chair Bramlett professed undying love for his married sweetheart, but contended she fired the shot through the bathroom window of their home which killed her husband.

Rebuttal witnesses said Mrs. Childs could not have fired the shot unless she stood upon a box or other object.

Bramlett had previously signed a statement in which he said he shot Childs. He repudiated this, saying he feared his sweetheart would be harmed by rangers who had her in custody.

A CCC camp coroner of the convicted youth testified he had been offered $3,000 to "put Childs out of the way."

Bramlett said he had made the offer. He said his entire connection with the killing was in bringing Mrs. Childs a rifle with which the slaying was committed.

Defense attorneys secured a change of venue here from Shelby county on the grounds feeling regarding the killing of Childs, a cripple and former county treasurer, was so high fair trials would be impossible.

During his trial Bramlett outlined his first meeting with Mrs. Childs and told how he had "wanted to marry her honorably." He said Childs refused to give her a divorce.

Bramlett said he once went to Chicago to escape the woman's attentions. He told of meeting her

FEDERAL ACTION IS REQUESTED IN RAIL STRIKE TEXAS LINE

CITY OFFICIALS OF GREENVILLE URGE INTERVENTION IN STRIKE

GREENVILLE, Sept. 24.—(P)—City officials awaited today an answer to their request for federal intervention in the strike of Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas railway company employees.

Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins advised Mayor F. N. Sockwell she had turned the request over to the board of mediation.

The officials also sent telegrams to President Roosevelt, Governor Allred and Fred Nichols, chairman of the bureau of labor statistics, asking intervention to effect a settlement.

W. H. Gallagher, Denison, chairman of the state legislative board of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, told a mass meeting of several hundred persons last night the L. A. and T. had failed to comply with provisions of the railway labor act.

In addition to the strike of the L. A. and T. brotherhoods, which began Saturday, the possibility of a walkout of more than 50 employees of the company's car department and shops appeared.

Today that officials of the L. A. and T. had failed to comply with provisions of the railway labor act.

One claimed refusal of the company to recognize certain organizations, another refusal of the right to contract and collective bargaining, and the third refusal to reinstate three carmen said to have been discharged because they testified at an investigation by the national mediation board.

First Violence In Railroad Strike

SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 24.—(P)—With first blood drawn in the strike of employees of the Louisiana and Arkansas railroad system, union strike leaders charged today that officials of the L. A. and T. had failed to comply with provisions of the railway labor act.

Two men were hurt at Minden, La., in a flare of violence. Strike sympathizers hurled rocks and bottles at a train crew at the Minden depot. R. Norwood, 50, L. A. and T. division trainmaster. H. L. Gray, one of a total of

JAPANESE DEFIANT OF PROTESTS MADE AGAINST ACTIVITY

CURTLY REJECT CHINESE PLEAS AND PATROL LARGE PART OF SHANGHAI

By MORRIS J. HARRIS.
(Copyright, 1936, by Associated Press.)
SHANGHAI, Sept. 25.—(Friday)—Residents of Shanghai's Japanese community, part of the International Settlement area under the military control of Japanese marines, early today asked Tokyo to "dispatch immediately to China land and sea forces sufficient to accord full protection to Japanese lives and property."

The petition was sent in an atmosphere slightly eased by the absence of further incidents following Wednesday night's shooting of three Japanese marines, one of whom died.

Patrols of Japanese bluejackets continued a vigilant patrol in the Hongkong area.

The Japanese residents of the section, however, admittedly were apprehensive lest there be further trouble.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 24.—Japanese officials backed by armed marines, patrolling a large area under martial law, rejected curtly today Chinese protests against invasion of the Chinese settlement and warned the entire city to "keep its head cool."

ROOSEVELT-LANDON EXPRESS VIEWS TO NEWSPAPER FORUM

BOTH CANDIDATES DECLARE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS ABSOLUTELY ESSENTIAL

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—(P)—An appeal by President Roosevelt for "clear thinking" in determining the future of the country and an attack by Gov. Alf Landon on what he termed "waste and extravagance" of the new deal were written into the record of the Herndon Forum on Current Problems today.

The President, speaking from his Hyde Park, N. Y., home last night, said the Forum might start political partisans thinking and "scare the idea that prejudice is a rather weak substitute for logic in determining the questions that are of such vital consequence to our country as a whole and to each individual citizen thereof."

Landon in his statement—read by Representative Joseph W. Martin, Jr., eastern republican campaign manager—lashed out at the "narrow nationalism in its (the administration's) planned economy."

Both candidates upheld freedom of the press.

"Freedom of speech and a free press is essential to the continuing of true liberalism," Landon's statement said.

Mr. Roosevelt appealed for direct handling of news—"the commodity that is marketed to the whole people"—and said he did not believe "a journal's news columns ought to be tampered with, either by coloring news or leaving out news."

TEAR GAS SALES TO INDUSTRY ARE REPORTED THURSDAY

WIDELY USED IN STRIKE SITES; GRENADES ALSO SOLD FIRMS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—(P)—Large sales of tear gas to industrial plants in nearly every state were revealed today by a senate committee investigating alleged civil liberties violations in labor disputes.

Testimony that his firm sold almost $500,000 worth of gas and equipment to corporations and individuals between 1932 and 1934 was given by A. S. Alles, vice president of the Lake Erie Chemical company, one of the nation's three gas manufacturers.

A "gas map" of the United States, showing concentrated sales in industrial districts, was spread against the walls of the hearing room by investigators for the LaFollette committee.

Largest purchases of the gas, commonly used in strike breakings, were shown in the steel and rubber regions of eastern Ohio, industrial districts of New York and in Louisiana and California, scene of longshoremen's strikes.

CAUSTIC CRITICISM AMERICA'S PART IN WORLD WAR BY LLOYD GEORGE ANSWERED BY JOHNSON

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—(P)—A caustic criticism by David Lloyd George that American participation in the World War was "a fussy muddle" drew a sharp challenge today from General Hugh Johnson, who directed the American army's supply and traffic organization.

"It is one of the most inexplicable paradoxes of history," the wartime premier wrote in the fifth volume of his memoirs, published in London today, "that the greatest machine-producing nation on earth failed to turn out mechanism for war after 18 months of sweating, toiling, hustling."

Johnson retorted that the United States achieved "the swiftest and greatest mobilization of force by any nation or combination of nations in the war in a similar period."

Lloyd George also revived the issue of the command of the A. E. F., with barbed comments on General John J. Pershing's refusal to permit the doughboys to be absorbed into French and British units. This, too, aroused Johnson.

The Welsh statesman, while describing the American soldiers as "superb," accused Pershing of endangering the Allied cause by his insistence that the American army operate as a unit, and said Pershing "was quivering with suspicion about the British and French meant to rob him of his army."

"I never saw Pershing quiver but he certainly had a right to. His original order in August, 1917, contemplated an American army under an American flag. But he found both British and French using every strategy to have American soldiers fed into their divisions, to fight in their uniforms and under their colors," Johnson said.

Radio Station Power Increase.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—(P)—Radio Station KRGV, Weslaco, Texas, was authorized today by the Communications Commission to increase its power from 500 watts to one kilowatt.

Total of $2750 Reported So Far In Charity Drive

Festus A. Pierce, chairman of the United Charities campaign this week for $4,000 reported at 1:30 Thursday afternoon a total of $2,750 had been received in cash and pledges. It was pointed out this was represented in reports from the five major committees, but numerous workers had not completed their work.

Chairman Pierce said many of the workers have not contacted every person in their territory, and were not satisfied to quit work until everyone had been given an opportunity to contribute to the campaign.

The five major committees included the advance contributions or big gifts committee; two business district committees; residential district committee and the booth committee.

The drive proper started Tuesday morning, but the advance contribution committee has been working since the latter part of last week.

COLMERY ELECTED LEGION COMMANDER BY UNANIMOUS VOTE

ENTHUSIASM MARKS ELECTION OF KANSAS MAN AT CLEVELAND MEETING

CLEVELAND, Sept. 24.—(P)—The American Legion's 18th convention elected Harry W. Colmery of Topeka, Kas., national commander today with a roaring unanimous vote, adopted resolutions demanding the country steer a course of strict neutrality in international affairs and then adjourned to meet in New York next year. Adjournment came at 12:55 p. m. (Central Standard Time.)

Immediately upon the announcement of the election, crowds of veterans carrying the standards of their states, rushed to the platform and gathered around Colmery at the speakers' stand.

As the band struck up a fast tune outgoing Commander Ray Murphy stepped close to Colmery in the crush on the platform.

"I declare Harry Colmery elected," yelled outgoing Commander Ray Murphy above the din.

"Where the hell is he?" as he looked about the hall.

The championship drum and bugle corps from Chicago's Commonwealth Edison Post struck "Hail to the Chief."

Murphy, striking repeatedly on the great assembly hall finally brought order and introduced Colmery as "your commander."

"You are mighty nice to me," Colmery said. "To be chosen as the leader of a million men, American Legion, Page 11

BANK OF FRANCE RAISED DISCOUNT RATE TWO PER CENT

INCREASE FROM THREE TO FIVE PER CENT IS EFFORT HALT GOLD EXPORT

PARIS, Sept. 24.—(P)—The Bank of France raised its discount rate from 3 to 5 per cent today in a drastic measure to stem the outflow of French gold reserves.

Financial circles, however, watched anxiously in fear the rise might fail to stop the drain on gold.

Bankers believed the order gave the government "at least a temporary respite."

The British pound eased in the exchange after going above 77 for the first time since June, 1934.

Usually well-informed quarters said France already had obtained Britain's guarantee that "realignment" of the franc would not lead to a depreciation of the pound. Britain was reported, however, to have attached the reservation to its promise that France must lower its tariff rates in proportion to any decline in the value of the franc.

The British promise left Premier Leon Blum free, the same sources said, for "quick action" when and if it is decided such a step is necessary.

Only yesterday, French political circles reported the government, worried by the gold drain which between Aug. 7 and Sept. 11 took 1,450,000,000 francs (about $55,804,000) out of France, had

ITALY EXPECTED TO REMAIN AWAY FROM LEAGUE ASSEMBLY

SEATS FOR ETHIOPIA MEANS ABSENCE MUSSOLINI'S DELEGATES

By A. E. STUNTZ
Associated Press Foreign Staff.
ROME, Sept. 24.—(P)—Seats for Ethiopia in the League of Nations assembly means Italy's absence around a conference table, well-informed sources declared today.

Premier Mussolini, whose attempt to have Emperor Haile Selassie's representatives barred from Geneva failed yesterday, was reported considering a vigorous statement of his future policy.

He may outline future Italian action, these sources predicted, but probably will not resign from the international group.

They pointed to the submission yesterday of Wolde Mariam, former Ethiopian minister to Paris, to the sovereignty of the king of Italy as evidence that even former Ethiopian patriots realized the fascists intended to maintain their control in the East African kingdom.

DEMOCRATIC LEADERS MEET ROOSEVELT TO OUTLINE CAMPAIGN

GARNER, THREE CABINET OFFICERS AND OTHERS ARE CALLED IN CONFERENCE

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff Writer
HYDE PARK, N. Y., Sept. 28.—Twenty men high in Democratic councils converged on the summer white house today to discuss with President Roosevelt every angle of the new deal re-election drive.

Vice-President Garner and three cabinet officers—Secretaries Hull and Roper and Attorney-General Cummings—headed the group summoned here for the late afternoon session of presidential speech-making, finances and general party strategy.

Others scheduled to participate in the parley in the ivy-covered stone house on the Hudson were Senators Robinson of Arkansas, Byrnes of South Carolina, O'Mahoney of Wyoming and Donahay of Ohio; Representatives Boland of Pennsylvania and Drewry of Virginia.

Chairman James A. Farley, W. Forbes Morgan, Frank C. Walker, James W. Gerard, and L. W. Robert represented the democratic national committee.

Senator Guffey, Pennsylvania, chairman of the Democratic electoral campaign committee, Chairman O'Connor of New York and Rayburn of Texas, respectively, of the house rules and interstate commerce committees, Edward J. Flynn, secretary of state for New York and Bronx leader and Charles Michelson, director of publicity for the national committee.

Topping off a day of political and business conferences, Mr. Roosevelt in a radio address last night in the New York Herald Tribune's current problems forum, appealed for logic, calm deliberation and calm thinking in determining questions bearing on the "future" of the country.

In his speech the president took what close associates interpreted as an indirect dig at Col. Frank Knox, republican vice-presidential nominee. He said an old New York friend who had led a "somewhat narrow existence" asked him recently if it were true "all our bank deposits were insecure and an income tax assessment against warm political debate followed."

MADRID DEFENDERS MAKE EVERY EFFORT BLOCK INSURGENTS

FASCIST ARMIES NEARING TOLEDO FOR RELIEF OF ALCAZAR SURVIVORS

By The Associated Press.
Madrid's defenders, desperately trying every measure to hold off manifold insurgent advances on the capital, loosed the waters of the Alberche river dam today over the town of San Martin De Valdeiglesias, 35 miles to the west.

The town, intended point of convergence for fascist northern and southern columns, was reported destroyed, and with it, much insurgent equipment.

Both government and direct insurgent specialists reported the fascist armies advancing on Toledo had reached a point 12 or 13 miles from that city.

The government announced a desperate "pinching movement" by its armies had boxed in fascist armies pressing on the capital.

Stubborn defense near Santa Cruz Del Retamar was combined with an assault which split insurgent lines behind Talavera De La Reina. The government declared. Fascist communications in the Talavera sector were wrecked by aerial attacks, the announcement continued.

Unofficial insurgent radio broadcasts yesterday reported the fascist vanguard had reached Navalcarnero, 18 miles from Madrid, or halfway between the capital and Santa Cruz. This report was not borne out by today's dispatches from insurgent headquarters.

However, the fascists announced another line of campaign in the Madrid sector.

A crash of cannon in the Guadarrama mountains, northwest of the capital, signaled a combined artillery-infantry drive by northern fascists to break through passes in the Sierras at two points.

A new fascist force, marching south from Maqueda and Torrelaguna, promised relief to the surviving men, women and children in Toledo's Alcazar "within 48 hours."

Alleged Slayer Hanged Self In Mississippi Jail

PORT GIBSON, Miss., Sept. 24.—(P)—Jack Early, 38, on trial here in circuit court for the slaying last February of Joe Lord, a prominent Mississippi planter, hanged himself in his cell in the Claiborne county jail today.

The body of Early was found hanging by a sheet rope from a rafter by Deputy Sheriff W. C. Davis.

Dr. D. M. Segrest said the prisoner had been dead for about 40 minutes when the act was discovered.

Relatives of Early came here last night from Texas to aid him in his defense. Among them was a brother-lawyer from Longview, Early formerly was a well-known business man and was a member of the treasury board. He engaged in business with Lord on his Claiborne plantation, but later disappeared and was accused of slaying Lord, burying his body and taking proceeds from the sale of some fine stock.

The trial was in its second day with testimony expected to start today.

ADMINISTRATIVE MACHINERY FOR NEW SHIP SUBSIDY PLAN SET IN MOTION BY ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—(P)—Administrative machinery was in the makings today for a long range, multi-million dollar ship subsidy program as President Roosevelt gave the "go ahead" sign by appointing three of the new maritime commission's five members.

The program, enacted by the last congress with the declared aim of enabling American ships to sail the seven seas on even terms with those of foreign countries, provides for direct construction and operating subsidies in place of existing mail contracts.

Under the law, activities under the new legislation can be launched at once by the three commission members named by Mr. Roosevelt at Hyde Park last night.

The three are Henry A. Wiley, retired navy rear admiral of Haverford, Pa.; Rear Admiral H. G. Hallet, former even-mandant of the coast guard, and

TEXAS' OIL PRORATION SYSTEM APPARENT VICTOR OVER FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IN HOT OIL TAXES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—(P)—Texas' oil proration system apparently emerged the victor today over the federal government in a dispute involving the right of the internal revenue bureau to seize and sell illegally produced oil to satisfy tax claims.

William McCraw, Texas attorney general, reported amicable settlement of a controversy between the state and the bureau over disposition of 543,000 barrels of illegal crude and its products in the East Texas field.

McCraw explained the difficulty in this manner:

Internal revenue bureau agents at Kilgore quietly filed notice of intention to sell the oil to satisfy an income tax assessment against a man who once owned it. Texas, legal possessor of the contraband because it was produced in violation of state law, argued in the confiscate its property to satisfy a claim against an individual, McCraw obtained an injunction restraining the agents from proceeding with the sale.

McCraw and his assistant, W. J. Holt, reported yesterday that two days of conferences with representatives of the treasury, justice and justice departments produced "highly satisfactory" results, and added that as far as any "destruction of the accomplishments of conservation in Texas is concerned the fence is still horse high, bull strong and pig tight."

McCraw said he believed the internal revenue bureau would drop its original plan since Washington officials "seem to understand the situation now" and realized the danger of the original plan to Texas oil laws.

McCraw protested that the plan, which he feared would "open up East Texas again," if carried to completion, would permit the federal government to seize oil the state had declared illegal and worth considerably more than the tax claim.

RECORD BIDS ARE RECEIVED TUESDAY SAN ANGELO BONDS

PAR, ACCRUED INTEREST AND PREMIUM OFFERED STREET IMPROVEMENT

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 22.—(P)—A high bid of par and accrued interest plus a premium of $4,607.50 on $38,000 in five per cent street improvement bonds, issued March 1, 1928, the last maturing in 1950, was hailed alike by bond company representatives and city officials this morning as proof of the financial stability of San Angelo after the city had suffered by flood the greatest catastrophe in its history. The city and schools have total bonded debt of only $2,188,000 and never have been in default on any of their obligations.

Bids were closed, after nine were in, to permit tabulation and were to be acted upon this afternoon. Notice of offering of the bonds was given before the flood last Thursday. Proceeds of a sale plus a surplus will enable San Angelo to retire $75,000 in one street issue and refund part of another at a lower interest rate. The high bidder was Beckett, Gilbert and Co., Inc., of Dallas.

The city commission this morning passed an ordinance assessing and levying 1936 taxes at a rate of $2.62 on the $100 property valuation based on total valuations for tax purposes of $19,361,000.

DENSE FOG OVER NEW ENGLAND HAS RESULTED FATALLY

AIRPLANE CRASH AND SHIP COLLISION BLAMED ON BAD WEATHER

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—(P)—Dense fog over the Atlantic seaboard, endangering shipping and disrupting aviation schedules today, claimed three lives in a Rhode Island plane crash and caused a collision of two freighters in New York waters.

Dual investigations by army and Warwick, R. I., officials began today into the crash and burning of a twin-motored army bomber near Hillsboro, R. I., in which three army airmen plunged to death.

The dead were: Lieut. J. J. Neely of Texas, pilot; Pvt. Joseph J. Macziewski, radio operator; and Corporal Angelo Mazzaco, bomber. Macziewski tentatively was listed from Schenectady, N. Y., and Mazzaco from Jersey City, N. J.

The freighters Pluto, of Norwegian registry, and the New York, of the Central Vermont Transportation company, crashed in blinding fog in the East River off Hunts Point without loss of life.

Coast guardsmen and relief grant removed the crew of 17 from the Pluto, which flashed a distress signal.

Shortly before dawn the Pluto sank, and the New York, not badly damaged, then proceeded to New London, Conn.

COMMITTEE HOLDS ETHIOPIA REMAINS MEMBER OF LEAGUE

LEAGUE ASSEMBLY THEN BACKS COMMITTEE BY OVERWHELMING VOTE

By JOSEPH E. SHARKEY
Associated Press Foreign Staff.
GENEVA, Sept. 23.—(P)—The League of Nations assembly, by a vote of 39 to 4, tonight adopted a report of its credentials committee recommending that the Ethiopian delegates be seated.

The report also decided against submission of the Ethiopian question to the World Court. The Ethiopian delegates refused to accept the committee's decision. The committee decided in favor of Ethiopian participation in the assembly because of existing doubts as to the delegates' credentials. The Ethiopian delegates, the committee held, should be given the benefit of these doubts.

Several dramatic incidents marked the session of the committee. Just before the decision was reached, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden of England jumped to his feet and exclaimed: "Enough of this nonsense! There never has been any sufficient ground to unseat the Ethiopian delegation."

Almost all the small nations on the committee fought for the Ethiopians, with Foreign Commissioner Maxim Litvinoff of Russia also making a leading role. At times the discussion became so bitter that one or two states, the names of which were not disclosed, threatened to resign from the League if the Ethiopians were ejected.

In some circles, the committee's decision was interpreted as virtually non-recognition of Italy's conquest of Ethiopia.

Halle Selassie and his delegates contended that the independent government in Ethiopia, despite annexation of the conquered kingdom by Fascist Italy. On the other hand, the Italians have refused to participate in the League proceedings until Ethiopia is erased from membership.

League Appeared Divided In Matter

GENEVA, Sept. 23.—(P)—Ethiopia seemingly won another inning today in its fight to stay in the League of Nations as an independent kingdom.

Although the credentials committee of the league assembly had reached no decision, officials said there was marked tendency to refrain from recommending rejection of the Ethiopian delegation from the sessions pending submission of the problem to the world court.

There was a second tendency, officials admitted, to recommend provisional exclusion of Ethiopia. This meant, the officials added, that the assembly might have to assume responsibility and decide whether the Ethiopians can remain pending the Hague's decision.

Opposing delegates split the assembly into two groups over Ethiopia's right to sit around their council table.

One faction, adopting the name "realists," backed the Italian demand to exclude the Ethiopians on the ground their country was no longer a separate kingdom but a fascist colony.

The others, who described themselves as "idealists," lined up behind Emperor Haile Selassie's representatives in an effort to assure the rights of smaller nations in the international membership.

The issue was sent back to the assembly by the credentials committee, which agreed to the world court appeal. The assembly promptly turned it to another committee of jurists—and this group sent it right back to the entire membership.

During the shuffling, Italy withdrew from the international conference on broadcasting without giving an express reason for her action.

BROTHERS HANGED FOR MURDER WHILE KIDNAPING CHILD

ARTHUR AND DANIEL BAN-
NISTER, YOUTHS, HANGED
IN DORCHESTER

DORCHESTER, N. B. Sept. 23.—(P)—Two brothers—Arthur Bannister, 19, and Daniel, 20—were hanged together today for killing a woodsman-squatter during the kidnaping of his infant daughter for their mother to use in the "baby doll" extortion plot.

Resigned to death after rejection of the appeals for clemency, the brothers walked silently to the gallows where they stood back to back as the nooses were placed over their heads.

"It's too tight, I can't pray," complained Daniel shortly before the traps were sprung simultaneously at 2:06 a. m., Atlantic daylight time (11:06 p. m. central standard time).

The brothers were convicted of killing Philip Lake, 30-year-old woodsman living near Pacific Junction, N. B. The crown charged the Bannister brothers were responsible for Lake's death during the abduction of his four months old daughter last January.

Mrs. May Bannister, their mother, wanted the baby to aid in an alleged extortion plot against two men, the crown charged, were under moral obligation to her.

The prosecution during the brothers' trial asserted Mrs. Bannister attempted to fake motherhood by appearing with a life-size baby doll. Her effort to get money from the two men with the doll failed, it was charged, and she, her two boys, and her 15-year-old daughter Frances devised the plan to kidnap the Lake baby.

During the kidnaping Lake was killed, his common law wife fatally injured, and his young son left to die outside their lonely cabin in midwinter, the prosecution alleged.

The brothers were charged with killing only Lake and were found

ALLEGED "GORILLA MAN" CONFESSES TO MURDER OF WOMAN

MYSTERY SURROUNDS BRU-TAL SLAYING OF WELFARE
WORKER LA JOLLA BEACH

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 22.—(P)—Police Chief George Sears said today Donald J. Hazell, 225-pound "Gorilla Man," confessed he killed Ruth Muir, 48-year old Riverside Y. W. C. A. secretary at La Jolla the night of Aug. 31.

Hazell, arrested Sept. 4, during the quest into the death of Miss Muir, was sent to the California state institution for the insane after his capture.

Sears said he was informed by Police Officer Ed Stotter and Deputy Sheriff Walter Blue at Patton that Hazell had signed the confession.

City Manager Robert Flack revealed the asserted confession and Sears immediately went into conference with detectives who worked on the case, Coroner Chester Gunn and Autopsy Surgeon F. E. Toomey.

The alleged confession was obtained by Blue and Stotter at Patton last night, Flack said.

The asserted confession said Miss Muir was standing "behind a bush" when Hazell struck her. Then, he said, he dragged her into a nearby ravine.

Hazell was said to have added: "At times these psychic spells come over me and compel me to take a life," according to the alleged confession.

Chief Sears said the confession would be checked in every detail before any move is made to prefer formal charges against Hazell. Hazell was arrested while loit-

FEDERAL CONFERENCE ON ADMINISTRATION CONNALLY OIL ACT

TEXAS A N D GOVERNMENT
OFFICIALS ATTACKING
LEGAL TANGLES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—(P)—The right of the government to sell "hot oil" seized to satisfy income tax claims was at issue today as officials of three federal departments resumed a conference with Attorney General William C. Clegg on administration of the Connally act.

Called by Attorney General Cummings at the request of Texas authorities, the conference was expected to straighten out various problems resulting from administration of the law designed to curb shipments of "hot oil"—produced in excess of a state's legal quota.

To accomplish this, the act authorized the interior department, through the federal tender board, to supervise interstate movement of oil.

John Dickinson, assistant attorney general and spokesman for the federal officials attending the conference, said providing closer co-operation between the tender board, the Texas railroad commission which controls interstate oil movements and various state law enforcement agencies was one of the principal problems under study.

He predicted definite conclusions would be reached by tonight and McCraw said "the government departments and I are of one mind and one thought" as the first day's discussions ended yesterday.

"We are getting along swell," McCraw added.

Texas authorities have contended the railroad commission has sole authority to dispose of illegal oil, disputing the right of the internal revenue bureau to sell hot oil obtained through liens against property of a delinquent taxpayer.

Only a few weeks ago we were told that we had more tractors on our floor than we would sell. They are gone and three more car loads have taken their place.

When considering the purchase of a Tractor, there are several things to be considered: First, economy of operation and quality of work done; second, the second hand value, some day you might want to sell it; third, the repair expense and can they be had at a few minutes' call. If you will consider well these three features we have no fear of your decision.

Astaire-Rogers Coming In Swing Time

"Swing Time" the new Fred Astaire-Ginger Rogers musical, coming to the Palace theatre Saturday night and through Wednesday, is more generous to those who eagerly wait for the nimble-footed pair to present the last word in team dancing than any of their previous features. They danced once as a team in "Flying Down to Rio," swirling to "Carolina." They left themselves go in two dances together in "The Gay Divorcee" and "Roberta." They matched footwork in three dances in both "Top Hat" and "Follow the Fleet." Now they may be seen in four distinctive numbers set to the rhythms of "The Way You Look Tonight," "Never Gonna Dance," and "Pick Yourself Up," and the "Waltz in Swing Time," all by Jerome Kern, who scored this RKO Radio picture. Victor Moore, Helen Broderick, Eric Blore, Betty Burness and Georges Metaxa top the support. George Stevens directed the Pandro S. Berman production.

LABOR HEAD URGES VETERANS STAY OUT FOREIGN TROUBLES

NEW YORK CITY UNANIMOUSLY
CHOSEN FOR 1937
CONVENTION POINT

CLEVELAND, Sept. 23.—(P)—

The American Legion selected New York City today for its 1937 convention, heard a plea for a veteran-labor alliance against "foreign entanglements" and a warning to move cautiously in pressing for new benefits for ex-servicemen.

Election of Harry W. Colmery, Topeka, Kas., lawyer, as national commander was assured for tomorrow when his only remaining opponent, Quimby Melton, Griffin, Ga., editor, conceded victory to the Topeka.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, urged legionnaires to stand with organized labor against American participation in the most perilous and distressing European situation.

Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, took the American Legion's nineteenth annual convention platform at the Ohio department, has demanded his "ouster as veterans bureau head, asserted "reasonable compensation" had been provided for disabled veterans and dependents of war dead.

Urges Justice to All.

"It is my advice," he said, "that in the consideration of future proposals for the enactment of additional legislation beneficial to veterans and their dependents, due recognition be given to existing benefits and care exercised to avoid the possibility of claims of injustice to that group of citizens not falling within the classification of war veterans and their dependents."

National Commander Ray Murphy introduced Bob Feller, the rookie pitcher for the Cleveland Indians, who recently set a new American league record of 17 strikeouts.

Murphy said Feller was a product of the Legion's junior baseball.

John J. Hall, New York, director of the street and highway safety division of the national bureau of casualty and surety underwriters, told the legionnaires, "We have a public duty to interest ourselves in the solution of the traffic accident problem."

He said that on the national average, 250 members of the Legion have been killed during the past year and 30 times that number injured.

New York City Chosen.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 23.—(P)—New York was unanimously named the 1937 American Legion convention city today.

New York's spectacular campaign for the 1937 meeting, climaxed here by an impressive display of police and fire department bands, motorcycle squads and mounted officers, was started nearly two years ago.

Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia personally led the delegation into Cleveland and marched at its head in yesterday's parade with 100 officers on motorcycle, another 100 on horseback, 2,800 policemen and 1,200 firemen on foot, a police band of 140 men and the firemen with 125 pieces.

With a rafter-shaking yell of approval, the delegates approved the motion.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 23.—(P)—The parading playboys of the American Legion eased their weary bodies into the welcoming seats of public auditorium (at 8 a. m. CST) today for the serious business of their eighteenth annual national convention.

Addresses by General Frank T. Hines, U. S. veterans' administrator, and William Green, American Federation of Labor President, were among several awaiting the tired legionnaires, who marched more than 11 hours yesterday in a colorful spectacle which National Commander Ray

Forrest Clough Fights Handicaps For An Education

DALLAS, Sept. 23.—(P)—Forrest W. Clough, 27, who has battled nearly insurmountable physical handicaps through life and still achieved success, left here today to become radio news commentator, announcer and continuity writer for the Abilene Reporter-News.

Paralyzed when 4 months old, Clough, son of Dr. G. O. Clough, Southern Methodist University's director of extension, went through high school and college in a wheel chair.

He took a B. A. degree in government, a B. S. in journalism and lacks only his thesis toward a masters at Southern Methodist. The college work took him from 1927 until 1936 because of absences due to a nervous breakdown, appendicitis and a venous insect bite.

Despite his crippled condition Clough played in the Mustang band. He travelled 60,000 miles with the organization, including three coast to coast trips.

SOME SENSATIONAL TESTIMONY TAKEN BY SENATE PROBE

COMMITTEE TOLD MAN HAD BEEN HIRED TO CREATE
STRIKE DISTURBANCES

By JOHN FISCHER

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—(P)—A senate investigating committee today heard testimony from a man who had been frequently employed by strike-breaking agencies to create disorders for the purpose of discrediting union strikers.

McDade testified before the La Follette committee, investigating alleged violations of workers' civil liberties that three men were killed in a seven-hour battle at Lake Charles, La., where he had brought 21 men from New Orleans to serve as guards during a long-shoremen's strike.

The guards were sworn in as special deputy sheriffs, he said, and were armed with machine guns and tear gas supplied by Federal Laboratories, Inc., of Pittsburgh.

They were employed by the Railway Audit & Inspection Company, an industrial detective firm, he added.

Two of the guards were killed by picketers, McDade testified, when they tried to bring a truck through the strikers' lines.

During the 1921 Cleveland milk strike, McDade told the committee, red paint was doused on the head of Frank Taylor, head of the Labor Ice Cream Company, in an attempt "to create sentiment against the strikers."

McDade said he was employed for that "job" by the James Field agency of Chicago, which sent five men to Cleveland under his supervision.

Documents to show that the Federal Laboratories, Inc., sold machine guns to the police chief of West Point, Ga., and that they were later turned over to a textile firm, were presented during yesterday's committee session.

Some guards were ordered to "slang" union men during the Pittsburgh national dairy strike in 1935, McDade said, adding that he did not do any of the slugging himself.

"What was the read purpose behind the slugging?" asked Senator Thomas (D-Utah).

"To cause trouble, I suppose," McDade replied.

In response to Thomas' questioning, McDade said he did not consider slugging and deliberate creation of disorders to be "legitimate tactics" in strike breaking.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—(P)—Senate investigators today continued their inquiry into the railway audit and inspection company, described in testimony yesterday as a detective firm which supplied strike breakers and labor spies to textile, utility, transportation and steel corporations.

Appointed to investigate alleged civil liberties violations, the La Follette senatorial committee called former "under cover" agents of railway audit to give additional details of the firm's activities.

Documents to show that the Federal Laboratories, Inc., of Pittsburgh sold machine guns to the police chief of West Point, Ga., and that they were later turned over to a textile firm were presented during yesterday's session.

D. W. Bliss, deputy commissioner of internal revenue, reported that the four sub-machine guns "were actually paid for by the

Charles Smith, of New York, who said he had worked as strike-breaker for railway audit on many "jobs," told the committee he had done "under-cover" labor investigating work for the Consolidated Gas Company, the Chase National Bank, General Motors Company and other large corporations, while employed by railway audit.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—(P)—Senate investigators today continued their inquiry into the railway audit and inspection company, described in testimony yesterday as a detective firm which supplied strike breakers and labor spies to textile, utility, transportation and steel corporations.

Appointed to investigate alleged civil liberties violations, the La Follette senatorial committee called former "under cover" agents of railway audit to give additional details of the firm's activities.

Documents to show that the Federal Laboratories, Inc., of Pittsburgh sold machine guns to the police chief of West Point, Ga., and that they were later turned over to a textile firm were presented during yesterday's session.

RED CROSS STARTS REHABILITATION IN SAN ANGELO AREA

LOCAL RELIEF FUND IS OVER
$24,000; FISH HATCH-ERY WAS SAVED

SAN ANGELO, Sept. 22.—(P)—

While the Red Cross is arranging to district the city Wednesday for completion of family case histories to carry on flood relief, residents and business property owners are betting $500,000 that a flood such as that of last Thursday cannot happen again. That much property involved in the flood area is being reoccupied, reconditioned; business has resumed and the forced relocation has changed the picture where the water line last week wrought havoc.

Miss Catherine B. Monroe, case work supervisor of the Red Cross, arrived today. She will place an experienced Red Cross disaster relief worker in charge of each district. Three hundred and fifty families had registered here this morning with the Red Cross and the number is expected to reach 500. Miss Monroe estimated that families needing relief are being urged to meet with the Red Cross at once. The family check-up will be the only survey of flood damaged homes.

Albert Evans, director of disaster relief here, asked Brown, Mills, Coleman, Concho, McCulloch, Runnels, Llano, Lampasas and Burnet counties to send in summaries of flood conditions, indicating that relief for flooded areas is being urged to meet with the Red Cross at once. The family check-up will be the only survey of flood damaged homes.

The $52,000 state fish hatchery, the largest in the state, was flooded twice last week but its sturdy construction proved its merit. Although every foot of the 40 acres of ponds was flooded, the "grass turfs," with few exceptions, held Edgar Mosel, superintendent of the hatchery, which is located on the South Concho three miles south of San Angelo, said $400 to $500 would put the hatchery back to normal.

The locally subscribed disaster relief fund today had reached $24,000 in cash. Private aid to employees by many firms would raise the figure by several thousands.

R. E. Sikes, field man for the federal housing administration, arrived today from Fort Worth. He said Washington had granted permission to put Section 6 of the FHA into operation here. This enables the FHA to back loans for the restoration, rehabilitation, and replacement of improvements on real property.

Early Trial For Damage Suit Asked

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 24.—(P)—Quick hearing of his $250,000 libel suit against Dr. Francis E. Townsend and four associates was demanded today by John E. Kiefer, dismissed regional director of Old Age Revolving Pensions, Inc.

"The quicker the better," said Kiefer, who charged that shortly after he was ousted as Chicago director, Dr. Townsend published in his magazine this month an article accusing Kiefer of "obscenity and drunkenness."

Kiefer alleged the circulation of articles "wholly false and untrue" brought him "into public discredit and disgrace."

GOVERNOR ALLRED
ISSUES CALL FOR
GENERAL ELECTION

AUSTIN, Sept. 22.—(P)—Governor Allred today formally called a general election in Texas for Nov. 3 in accordance with the law providing such action 30 days before the election date.

In addition to voting on presidential and vice-presidential electors, members of congress and candidates for many state, district and county offices, the electorate will pass on six proposed amendments to the state constitution.

The governor, meanwhile, conferred with C. S. Carpenter, director of old age assistance, and R. B. Anderson, tax commissioner, preparatory to writing a message to a special session of the legislature convening Sept. 28.

He announced not more than three subjects would be submitted and perhaps not that many. His call specified raising new revenue for old age pensions.

"If I decide to enable legislation for unemployment insurance, about the constitutionality of which there are grave doubts and additional provision for the insane," he said, "I will do so at the outset of the session."

The governor has asked county judges to report on the number of insane being cared for in jails and elsewhere outside of state hospitals.

"We have a big job in providing new revenue for pensions, and I don't want to confuse the situation with too many subjects," he said.

BACK TO CONVENTIONS

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University, urges a return
to the old political convention system of nominating candidates for important
offices, instead of the direct primary.

The latter, he complains,
"has almost entirely eliminated real public opinion
from any controlling part in the choice of nominees, and has substituted for public opinion the influence of persistent, ambitious, well-organized and self-seeking groups gathered about the personality of some highly
self-centered candidate.
Very rarely will the type of man who would accept
nomination from a representative party convention
actively seek that nomination by an extended personal canvass of his electorate,
making all sorts of promises and pledges in order to secure the support of various influential individuals
and groups."

The convention system
seems to work pretty well
with presidential nominations. Yet its superiority to the direct primary system,
while obvious in some respects, may be exaggerated.
It was to remedy the known
evils of boss-dominated conventions that nomination
was given direct to the voters.

DEFENSE

Gas masks may not be so bad when you get used to them. The Russian soldier who voluntarily wore one
for three weeks 24 hours a day, working or playing or sleeping, removed it only to eat, says he got so that he hardly noticed it. With whole populations preparing to adopt such a facial style, his experience is somewhat reassuring. We can do it if we have to,
even if it does make us look like men from Mars or monsters out of the sea.

We can probably get used
to living in dug-outs, too,
while our homes and offices
and factories are blown up and burned. And living on canned and dried foods
stored underground. We could turn ourselves into moles or termites. Or we could sleep underground
during the day and come
out at night, without lights.
Still, on the whole, we mightn't like it. And there might be some simpler,
more congenial way of safeguarding our future. Making the militarists and jin-
goes, for instance, wear the gas masks or live underground. Or using common sense and political power to compel statesmen in civilized countries to practice positive policies of friendly cooperation with other civilized countries, working together against war as they do against epidemic diseases.

DRIVERS' LICENSES

Ohio, the 37th state to
enact a drivers' license law,
has accomplished this only
after eight years of fighting for it. Such laws were first discussed 25 years ago,
when automobiles were scarce than today. They have become more important since cars became so efficient, powerful and
speedy as to tempt drivers
to take chances.

The Ohio law requires a trial judge to suspend or revoke the license of any person convicted of automobile manslaughter while intoxicated. The license
will bear notation of each
traffic offense, except parking violations, of which the driver is convicted. This provision appears in some of the laws in other states.

JUST FOLKS

(Copyright, 1935, Edgar A. Guest).

HERITAGE
There was a garden where he played which his father proudly kept.
There was his room with the
treasured things and the bed
on which he slept.
He had known the best of his father's gifts and the best
of his father's pride.
And that house with all of its
memories became his when
his father died.
He mortgaged the place for a selfish whim; refused it the slightest of care;
Never turned the earth where the
roses grew and the garden
soon was bare.
Though he had played on a velvet lawn and had slept in a room of his own,
He never gave to his children
small share of the joys he'd known.
He stripped the house of its wood-
work fine to make himself a
fire;
Thought nothing of those who would follow him, but all of his own desire.
And that home was only an ugly
shell, with all of its splendor
gone.
A place despoiled of its peaceful charm on the day that he passed it on.
What would you say of a man
like that who would live for himself alone?
And wouldn't save for his children's sake a share of the joys
he'd known?
Well, this land we live in is the home he got from our fathers
long ago.
'Twas a glorious land when they passed it down. Got grant we may keep it so.

AVIATION LEADERSHIP.

America leads the world
in air transportation. That is, more miles are flown
and more passengers and express carried, than in any other country. Schedules are faster and accidents are fewer.

In plane development,
however, Europe is still
supposed to have the edge
on this country. The ease with which Detroyat, the young French flyer who came to the national air
races as a stunter, won the Greve race and the famous Thompson trophy race is regarded as evidence of this superiority. His plane
is said not to be a special military ship, but it is the product of more than five years of intensive effort on the part of the French air force. Both plane and engine are the best French aeronautical experts have
so far devised. This flyer,
with this plane, set the world speed record last year for land planes at 314
miles an hour.

Aviation designing in Europe centers on military service. America has concentrated on reliable transportation more than on international air supremacy.
Detroyat's success may
now stimulate development
of power and speed. America, no doubt, can lead in these, too, if that is the aim.

FARM WASTE

Farmers sit up and take notice when they read of a lawsuit brought in Burlington County, N. J., by the owner of a farm against his tenant, for alleged failure to fertilize the land and allowing it to deteriorate.
The owner asks $15,000
penalty, which is three times the estimated damage
done, and also $5,000 to restore the property to its former condition.

The most interesting
thing about this suit is that it is brought under a law
enacted in 1795 and revised in 1877, but not used for
at least a quarter of a century.

There is a strong tendency to get back to old-fashioned principles of farming.
Letting a farm run down is probably worse than letting a factory run down, because it takes longer to restore. Avoidable deterioration is the greatest waste.

If properly enforced it
should be helpful in clearing the streets of reckless
and irresponsible drivers.

Several New York Utilities are announced as
"merging on a no-profit basis." What-what? Nobody
to get a rake-off?

No wonder we Americans
get so fidgety about politics
with the statisticians feeling
our political pulse every five minutes.

The framers of the Constitution "ignored political parties." And weren't they
the lucky stiff to be able to do so!

Millions turn to singing in the rain. Even birds get tired of dust baths.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

By Chamberlain

CULTURE AND DEMOCRACY.

The world was not particularly shocked at Hitler's announcement that Germany must regain her lost colonies. That demand has been expected for some time and many persons outside of Germany and with no nazi sympathies or connections have been saying
that some readjustment of that part of the Versailles
treaty was inevitable.

It is true that Germany
did not make much practical use of those colonies
when she had them. It is the psychological effect of
their loss and their restoration that is important.

Chancellor Hitler spoke
with considerably less justice and wisdom when he declared that "no nation
was ever created by democracy" and predicted that
"unless democracy is overcome, culture will not increase but will diminish."

Democracy was overcome
in Germany when Hitler became dictator. Then followed the burning of the books and the exile from Germany of many world-
recognized leaders in science, literature, art and music. Culture sinks to its lowest level when thought
and expression are shack-
led or pressed into a single mold by intellectual and political dictatorship.

IMPERIAL RIGHTS

"People with empty cribs
cannot create an empire,"
said Mussolini in praising
the most prolific province
of Italy. Neither can they maintain it. But he continued with a more questionable statement:

"Those who have a right
to empire are the fecund
peoples—those peoples who have the pride and will to propagate their race on earth—virile peoples in the world's strictest meaning."

If this were literally true,
the Chinese and Hindus
would have the best right
to empire—to run things as they pleased, wherever
they passed, whether in their own countries or elsewhere. For they are the most populous.

In the matter of population, it is customary nowadays in most civilized countries to consider quality
more important than quantity. A billion morons
wouldn't necessarily have a right to grab what they wanted and boss the world.
Neither would they have the ability.

Natural gifts are distributed pretty fairly. Artists can't spell and spellers can't draw.

FROST TURNING OUT
COUNTY AUDITORS IN PLENTIFUL NUMBERS
COUNTY OFFICIAL, AUSTIN PUBLICATION TELLS OF FOUR FROST AUDITORS

In the current issue of "The County Official," published at Austin, a story of "Four County Auditors," which tells of four former residents of Frost who are county auditors elsewhere. In the article three pictures of the four are shown and two of them, J. Y.
Boyd, former Hill county auditor
and Guy Mann, the present Hill
county auditor, are reproduced.

Following is the story:
"The little town of Frost, Navarro county, with a population of 748 by the last census, is proud of, and boasts among others, four men, all of whom were either
born in or near Frost, or were former residents of town and
all of whom are prominent county auditors in Texas.

"J. Y. Boyd moved to Frost in July, 1901, and lived there until November 1st, 1907. For the first six months of his residence in Frost he worked in Bennett's Flour Mill, which he then leased and later purchased. For the two years just prior to his leaving Frost he was engaged in the occupation of engineer in an oil mill.
From 1907 until July 15, 1915, he lived in Brandon, farming and as a manager of a drug store, then moving to Hillsboro, and for six years filled the position of county
auditor in Hill county, and later
as chief deputy in the tax collector's office. Mr. Boyd moved to Lubbock in December, 1928, and since then has been county auditor of Lubbock county.

"Hill County Auditor.
"G. M. Mann arrived in Frost
on July 1, 1918, from Penelope,
to fill the position of assistant cas-hler in the Citizens State Bank of Frost. In the following April he was made cashier of the Malone
bank, a private institution. Mr.
Mann and Mr. Boyd lived as neighbors in Brandon, Hill county, also.
Having been deputy in the office
several years ago, Mr. Mann is still holding the position of county auditor of Hill county.

"H. B. Hambrick was born near Frost January 7, 1885. He lived in and near Frost until August 13, 1903, then moving to Ennis, Ellis county, Texas. For the next several years he resided at Ennis Childress, Wichita Falls and Amarillo. Since October, 1921 he has been county auditor of Potter
county.

"J. M. Tullos, also a native of Navarro county, is claimed as a native son of Frost. Mr. Tullos is the county auditor of Navarro

CROP INSURANCE
PLAN COMMITTEE
MEET THIS WEEK

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22—(P)— Administration leaders selected by President Roosevelt to devise a federal crop insurance plan for suggestion to congress will hold their first conference some time
this week.

Originally called for today by Secretary Wallace, group chairman, the meeting was postponed
after Wallace was called suddenly
to Hyde Park to confer with President Roosevelt. The new date will depend upon when Wallace
returns to the capital.

The "first thing to do," Wallace told a press conference late yesterday, will be to determine
reserves necessary for insurance
—or the making of a reserve stock
of wheat, cotton or corn needed to meet the country's demands from year to year.

After that, the secretary said,
"some form of production control" would have to be considered.

LEGISLATION UPON PAROLE BOARDS MAY BE ASKED BY ALLRED

RECENT INTERSTATE CONFERENCE MAY BRING VALUABLE COMPACT

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL
AUSTIN, Sept. 24.—(P)—Legislation giving legal status to the volunteer parole boards appointed by Governor Allred may be submitted to the special session convening Sept. 28, but probably will go over until the regular session in January.

Fresh attention was directed to the problem of paroles by the interstate conference in Galveston and endorsement of the volunteer system by the state democratic convention in Fort Worth. Out of the conference may develop a compact under which Texas, Oklahoma, New Mexico, Louisiana, Arkansas and Arizona can co-operate in handling paroled convicts. Governor Allred is president and W. W. Halcomb of the Texas state department, is secretary of the temporary organization.

The Democratic platform commended the governor "for the worthwhile results" obtained by the parole boards and said "the salutary effects" should be recommended to the legislature. According to Halcomb, the whole theory of parole in Texas has been wrong and ought to be changed.

Parole in the past too often has been clemency," he said. "Pardon actually should be the only form of clemency. There is a sharp difference. Parole should be based strictly on merit and granted after a man's case comes up automatically. It should be a means of giving him a chance to adjust himself under supervision. That supervision should not be by an officer."

Four-Point Program.
He advocated a four-point program, with reference to handling convicts, as follows:

1. An adequate probation law "which would prevent men from going to the penitentiary who never should go there."
  2. A system of classification and segregation "within the walls" to prevent the penitentiary from becoming a training school for crime.
  3. Release under supervision for those entitled to parole and subject to rehabilitation.
  4. Making the penitentiary a place to "keep criminals," that is, those whose record and background proved they were criminally minded.
- Nearly every one who has dealt with convicts," Halcomb said, "will, I believe, agree on this matter as it may seem."
- "Some convicts are serving life sentences who could be turned out safely; others are serving short sentences who should be kept there for life."
- Stanhope Henry, member of the state board of pardons and paroles, expressed opinion volunteer supervision was "a big success" in many places.

PRESIDENT LAZARO CARDENAS STILL STRONG MAN OF MEXICO DESPITE OCCASIONAL FLAREUPS

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 24.—(P)—Notwithstanding occasional rumblings of discontent with the Mexican government's revolutionary policies, observers here rate President Lazaro Cardenas still the strongest man in the country.

The executive's personal standing has suffered not one whit, they say, in the year that has elapsed since he had his historic showdown with former President Plutarco Elias Calles, the erstwhile "strong man of Mexico."

Critics of the way the administration has handled labor, farm and church problems are the first to praise Cardenas' sincerity, integrity and devotion to what he believes the best interests of the nation.

And more than ever since he took office in December, 1934, persons cognizant of the inner working of the government say, the president is running his own show.

In the Calles crisis, five men were credited with giving the executive the advice and support that helped him to challenge the ex-president's decade-long sway. They were: Emilio Portes Gil, former president, former member of the Cardenas cabinet and, until his resignation last month, president of the National Revolutionary (government) party; Agustin Arroyo Ch., under secretary of interior; Gen. Francisco Mujica, secretary of communications; Deputy Luis Mora Tovar, and Senator Ernesto Soto Reyes. Portes Gil, Arroyo Ch. and Mujica were popularly called the "brain trust" that helped Cardenas work out his strategy, while Mora Tovar and Soto Reyes,

BAPTIST REVIVAL WITH JEW PREACHER ATTRACTS INTEREST

Tonight at the 7:30 p. m. hour, in the First Baptist Revival meeting now going on, the Jewish evangelist will speak on "God's Blockade on the Road to Hell." Between 800 and 1000 people heard the sermon on "There Is a Hell" last night. God honored and blessed the message. There were 13 additions to the church, making the total received thus far 87. The preacher stressed the certainty, the character, the crowds and the cries of hell. It was an impressive, stirring message.

The meeting will continue through Sunday night with services at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. If it rains, the services will be held in the large church auditorium. If the weather clears, they will be outside on the church lawn. The revival is the talk of the town. People are commenting loudly and favorably on the way the Jew attacks to the Bible, the Cross, the Savior, the Holy Spirit. God is blessing his labors and people who hear him are the better for it.

Sunday has been designated as Victory Sunday in the Sunday School of the First church. 700 has been set as the attendance goal. All of Corsicana is invited to help celebrate Victory Day. There is a class and a teacher for every sex and age. The Sunday school convenes at 9:30 a. m. We feel that our fellow citizens should take every advantage of this unusual revival. The singing under Mark Short is stirring. His three children are exceptional in their ability to thrill a crowd. The crowds are large and very attentive. The preaching is altogether on the Old Time Religion style. Souls are being converted and added to the church daily.

People are praying, getting right with God, doing the Lord's will. A few more days and the meeting will be over. Come to every service, morning and night. Come to the prayer meetings at 9:30 a. m. and at 7:00 p. m. —Reporter.

POLITICAL ORGANIZATION FALLS BEHIND SUNDAY SCHOOL *

Vast Network of Religious Teaching Reaches Remotest Regions—In North America, Two Million Teachers Instruct Twenty-eight Million Members in Fundamentals of the Good Life.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

There is at present a tremendous hubbub of political discussion and organization under way in the United States. Parties are frantically trying to get the votes everywhere. News paper commentators assume that political organization is the complete thing of its sort in the land.

Wherefore some of us chuckle at this ignorance. For the Sunday School—not to mention its parent organization, the Christian Church—is more completely organized than any political party can ever hope to be. Its training units abound in every city and are found in literally every town and village and community in the United States and Canada. Its enrolled membership in the whole world is more than thirty million, and in North America the Sunday School numbers more than twenty-eight million of persons, the bulk of them in the receptive and formative period of life. Its adult classes are the most numerous powerful forums of any sort to be found anywhere. More than two million men and women are actively serving as Sunday School teachers.

I am tempted to digress to call attention to what a noble and potent company of life-shapers they are. Judges, public officials, editors, schoolmen and business men without number are to be found in their ranks, as well as myriads of ordinary Christian men and women. All take their task with intense seriousness. The world at large has no knowledge of the multitude of periodicals and books exclusively devoted to the Sunday School, and assiduously perused by these faithful teachers and officers. I chanced to learn one time somewhat of the host of Philadelphia men and women who reserve Saturday evenings for the reading of the Sunday School, and assiduously perused by these faithful teachers and officers. I chanced to learn one time somewhat of the host of Philadelphia men and women who reserve Saturday evenings for the reading of the Sunday School, and assiduously perused by these faithful teachers and officers.

Dealing With Foundations. Political organization and campaigning are devoted to transient and usually uncertain issues. But this Sunday School multitude deals with life at its foundations. They are moulding character for generations to come, as they discuss the eternal verities of Scriptures. Their labors have results that are tangible. Of late, many judges, prison wardens and penologists have borne testimony, in connection with the so-called "crime" of a boy goes to Sunday School he won't go to jail. In last month's issue of The American Magazine a New York psychologist, Dr. Henry C. Link, in the midst of a most readable article dealing with the human problem with which he has dealt, make this significant statement:

"I have just finished analyzing tests that I have given to more than 2,000 adolescents in the past three years and I find that, with few exceptions, children who go to Sunday School have better personalities than children who do not. Recently, as a psychologist in charge of analyzing results of 73,226 tests given by the Adjustment Service Bureau of New York, I found that adults who belong to a church average distinctly higher in personality traits than those who do not."

In the light of what these scientists are saying, re-enforced by the anxious admonitions of statesmen, educators, editors and other publicists, we may look for a tremendous increase in Sunday School membership and activity in the months just ahead of us, as the world increasing conditions. For there are still seventeen million young people in the U. S. and Canada outside of definite religious training. Protestant, Roman Catholic or Jewish. These boys and girls, young men and young women, have missed the privilege which other millions have enjoyed during the past quarter, of becoming acquainted with the beginnings and first expansion of Christianity.

It Couldn't Be Bottled Up. Today we are looking back over these three months of study of the story that could not be bottled up in Jerusalem, or in the land of its origin. Perhaps this was the greatest expansion of the human mind in all history; certainly it was wider and nobler than Alexander's dream. That handful of Galileans with a Message visualized a whole world brought under the Saviourhood and Lordship of Jesus Christ.

What a Faith! That which all the philosophies and religions of three centuries had failed to do, these plain men, with their simple Gospel, undertook to do. At first, not all of the disciples understood that theirs was an extraordinary faith; but it could not be kept from the Gentiles. Now it is the one world religion.

Made Great By A Task. Everybody can be and do more than he is or does. The average mental and moral stature is small simply because the average ideas are petty. Great ideas made Henry Ford and the Wright brothers out of ordinary mechanics. Greatness is a natural growth from dominion by great principles. A case could be made for the proposition that history's keenest brains and loftiest aspirations for the race were those of the Church. Fathers of the first three centuries. For illustration, read a few pages of Augustine, and then by way of contrast, a few pages of any of the most popular of modern writers.

It was their great Message and mission that made great the Christian pioneers about whom we have been studying for the past three months—plus the su-

DYER FALL FASHION SHOW TUESDAY NIGHT ATTRACTIVE AFFAIR

LATEST IN AUTUMN AND WINTER WEAR THINGS DISPLAYED BY MODELS

Four hundred seats were arranged on the third floor of the J. M. Dyer Co. Tuesday evening for the fall fashion show with a promenade of attractive models, including Mrs. James A. Reilly, Misses Julia Davis, Christine Jackson, Neva Frost, Sarah Lee Garitty and Tubby Leonard.

The lounge at the further end of the third floor was quite inviting and attractive with baskets of pink and purple asters, potted ferns, and orange marigolds. A lovely radio, which furnished programs, while the guests were assembling.

By the appointed hour—8 o'clock—every seat was filled, and Mr. J. M. Dyer at the microphone, expressed pleasure in presenting the models in this showing of the autumn fashions. He announced that the models, as each one appeared, he pointed out the fashion highlights of each costume.

Outstanding styles were shown in fur coats, cloth coats, costume suits, dresses for sports, daytime and evening occasions.

Special attention was given to the showing of the right accessories with each costume.

Two Styles of Coats. In the showing of coats two distinct types were noted—the fitted princess and the loose swaggar. Outstanding among the fur coats modeled was a coat of squirrel worn by Mrs. Reilly, in the popular 40 inch swaggar length, and a youthful model in blocked lapin, worn by Miss Garitty, that could be worn either as a swaggar or as a belted princess type.

Black models, and as each one appeared, he pointed out the fashion highlights of each costume. Outstanding among the fur coats modeled was a coat of squirrel worn by Mrs. Reilly, in the popular 40 inch swaggar length, and a youthful model in blocked lapin, worn by Miss Garitty, that could be worn either as a swaggar or as a belted princess type.

The costume suit, one of the most important fashions of the season, was a feature of the showing. A green suit with brown lapin, worn by Miss Julia Davis, showed sleeves fashioned entirely of fur a nidea sponsored recently by Paris. Green wool with Persian lamb trim was shown as an important combination in suits worn by Misses Christine Jackson and Tubby Leonard.

Dresses shown, highlighted velvet for both dress and sports wear and rabbit's hair wools received much attention. Velvet predominated for afternoon wear. One of the more colorful sports costumes was a knitted two-piece frock with bright jerkin of rust suede, worn by Miss Davis. Mrs. Reilly modeled a two-piece costume showing the importance of sheer black wool with Persian lamb trim.

Evening dresses displayed richer, more colorful fabrics than in any previous season. Metal-shot crepes, crisp, rustling taffetas and brocaded damask, changeable taffetas and velvets, showed the rich beauty of the new coronation colors. Miss Tubby Leonard modeled an evening dress of full-skirted taffeta to illustrate the smartness of the new bright rust tones. A full-length evening coat of costume velvet, empire princess style with standing collar, was worn by Miss Neva Frost. She carried an evening bag fashioned by Elizabeth Arden of gold lame.

Special attention was called to the correct accessory ensembling, the hats and shoes, bags and gloves all being from the various departments of the store. A clever accessory idea presented was picking up a bright color, as for instance, in a belt, and matching it with gloves, an ascot or other accessory.

An important feature of the smart jacket, dresses, noted, was that the fur jacket may be worn with other suits.

At the conclusion of the fashion parade, Mr. Dyer thanked the audience for its courteous attention and expressed his indebtedness to the models, and to all who contributed to the success of the occasion.

A. W. McClung, Kerens, county commissioner, was in Corsicana Wednesday morning.

TURTLE-OIL CREAMS.

SUNSHINE AND TURTLES
Both the sun and the turtle who sleeps in its glare are supposed to be used in beauty creams. Miss Forbes tells you how to make these creams for yourself.

Recently we had quite a run on turtle-oil creams, and women buying them in great numbers. None of them, apparently stopped to ask themselves why they should use such an ugly and leathery-looking animal as a turtle to restore youth and beauty to the female skin. An English chemical journal said E. K. Forbes found a rather recent use in the cosmetic industry of the U. S. A. probably more as a new line of publishers than on its actual merits. But great claims were made for it—while the craze lasted.

As a matter of fact, good oil does come from the green turtle, and is the least offensive of any variety of turtle oil. All of them are pretty disagreeable. It is a by-product of canning green turtles for soup, which makes me wonder, by the way, why some of our industrious soup firms do not start advertising turtle soup for beauty. Most turtle-oil creams as it happened, were made out of whale oil, and many of them, I suspect, out of nothing more than mineral oil. In any case, I doubt the efficacy of even the genuine turtle oil.

Something else that you have read a lot about lately is Vitamin D all nicely locked up in your jar of cream, assuring you that you can feed your face with sunshine on even the gloomiest day, actually working into the skin an impressive number of the "units" which the jar claims to contain. You can make this sunshine cream yourself, with as many hundred sunshine units in it as you choose. The American Medical Association will tell you

FAMOUS FAN DANCER WILL BE HERE WITH TENT ATTRACTION

"Daphne," queen of fan dancers, will visit Corsicana on the evening of Tuesday, Sept. 29, and accompanied by her entourage of more than eighty people, traveling on a fleet of thirty-five huge trucks, cars and busses will appear for one performance only at the old ball park show grounds on South Ninth street, being presented there by the popular producer, Billy Wehle, manager and producer of Billroy's Comedians. This is his 12th anniversary tour and is reported to be by far the most impressive offering he has ever placed on tour.

One of the big features on the show is the Palais Royale Orchestra, offering a dozen of the peppiest, hottest playing musicians ever seen anywhere. A number of them were featured during the past winter at Bouche's Villa Venice, at Miami, where they were an outstanding attraction.

New shows, new faces, new vaudeville acts, new specialties, new features, and new everything, is the Billroy motto this season. The engagement here, will be for one night only, but will include a three-act production, seventeen vaudeville acts, the Palais Royale Orchestra, "Daphne" and her dream girls, and many unusual novelties. Doors will open at 7:15; overture at 7:30, and the curtain rises at 8:15 sharp.

Continuing his well known policy of the past, Manager Wehle is offering this massive attraction at popular prices, and for this engagement will admit ladies free, provided each is accompanied by one adult paid admission.

RAIL STRIKE

17 alleged company employees arrested since the strike began last Saturday, was knocked unconscious as he left the Minden courthouse after being released on bond from a charge of carrying concealed weapons.

W. R. Gallagher, chairman of the Texas legislative board of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, charged at a mass meeting at Greenville, last night that the L. A. and T. declined to meet provisions of the railway labor act, rates of pay, he said, had been unreasonably depressed below those of standard carriers.

Request for Intervention.
Mayor F. M. Sockwell of Greenville announced receipt of a telegram from the secretary of Labor Frances Perkins saying that a request for intervention toward effecting a settlement of differences had been turned over to the federal board of mediation, meanwhile employees at the shop of the L. A. and T. at Greenville were policed by representatives of the American Federation of Labor on whether they should go on a separate strike. The poll was to close tonight.

L. B. Whitley, Shreveport, R. Lindsey, Winnfield, and S. J. Westbrook, Bastrop, were the other releases with the injured Gray, also of Shreveport, at Minden police made four additional arrests later.

J. P. Jack and W. E. Hines, Port Worth, Texas, were released and ordered to leave town, but the other two men, listed as J. B. Teagle and Charles Montgomery, were jailed on charges of carrying concealed weapons.

Gun-Carrying Guards Must Have Permits

SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Armed guards employed by the L. A. and T. railroad for the purpose of patrolling the railroad's property, must have a commission from the State Bureau of Identification to carry a gun concealed on or about their person, or be subject to arrest and prosecution, Sheriff T. R. Hughes said today.

The sheriff's announcement was made following a conference with District Attorney James U. Galaway who cited the law against the carrying of concealed weapons, and a telephone conference with state officials at Baton Rouge.

The same law applies to persons or guards riding the trains, Sheriff Hughes declared. Members of the "Big Four" Railroad Brotherhoods employed by the L. A. and T. have been on strike since Saturday.

"Any man found carrying a concealed weapon, whether he be on a train or patrolling railroad property, will be arrested if he fails to have a commission," the sheriff declared, adding that President C. P. Cough of the L. A. and T. had been advised concerning the law and its enforcement.

Ordered to Maintain Order.
BATON ROUGE, La., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Governor Richard W. Leche said today he had telephoned Sheriff Oscar H. Haynes of Webster Parish directing him to maintain order in connection with the Louisiana and Arkansas railroad strike.

The communication with the sheriff followed throwing of rocks and bottles by strike sympathizers around the railroad's depot in Minden.

The governor denied a report he had issued orders for the arrest of all persons carrying guns in the strike area.

"I have issued no such order and have not taken part in the strike situation at all," he asserted.

To Arrest Armed Rail Employees.
SHREVEPORT, La., Sept. 24.—(AP)—The sheriff and district attorney's departments here today announced that all armed employees of the Louisiana and Arkansas Railway company, who are on strike, will be arrested for carrying concealed weapons, even if on the trains of the railroad company, unless they are commissioned to go armed.

This attitude in Shreveport is the same as that taken by several authorities at Minden, where several armed guards, not commissioned to go armed, have been arrested since the strike began last Saturday.

RAIN FELL OVER NAVARRO COUNTY THURSDAY MORNING

A slow steady rain fell in all sections of Navarro county Thursday morning. Rain started falling in Corsicana about 8:30 and continued an hour and half or two hours. The official gauge was available but the reading at the city lake was .30 of an inch at 8 o'clock. The shower continued for sometime bringing the fall to approximately one half an inch.

The rain fell so slowly that no damage was done to open cotton but picking was stopped for a day and perhaps longer, depending upon prevailing weather conditions. The rain started breaking away before 11 o'clock and it was practically clear before noon. When the rain started falling Corsicanans had hopes a "northern" would follow and that fall had started, but the wind soon shifted to the south and hopes of much cooler weather today went glimmering.

The rain followed those of last week close enough that lawns and shrubbery did not have to be watered and will continue to grow.

Teague Lions Injured Eye of Belton Game

TEAGUE, Sept. 24.—(Spl.)—The injury jinx struck another blow at the Teague Lions Monday afternoon when Gault Talley, first string tackle and reserve letterman from last fall, suffered a broken collarbone. Billy McSpence, tackled on as a reserve back this fall had previously suffered a fractured ankle. Chagrined at their dismal showing in the season's opener against the Mart Panthers, when they lost 32-0, the Lions started working hard Monday afternoon in preparation for the game with the Belton Tigers, district champions in their sector last year.

The game will be the longest trip taken by the Lions in several years. Coaches Schley and Crane promised the Lions plenty of working on blocking and tackling since the feeble tackling efforts against Sandig, Rogers, and Davis of the Panthers.

The starting lineup against the Tigers this week will probably be as follows: Ends, Cox (co-C) and Scott; tackles, Senter and Miller; guards, Terry and Simpson; center, Clark; backs, Gibson, (C), Goolsby, Kircher and Adams. Others likely to get into the game include Elliott, Harris, Isham, Forman, Seely and Russ.

The couple was married last December. Fairchild, the county attorney said, recently had filed suit for divorce.
